Scott County comes with its own soundtrack – music you can hear at informal pickings or weekend long music festivals!

Depot. Clinch Mountain Music Fest held in Gate City each June allows visitors to experience the best traditional music at a weekend long festival with unique events like a watermelon seed spitting contest, various bike races, geocaching and a photography contest.

While you're here, visit Allen Hicks' Jam Session in Nickelsville to hear talented locals and professionals join together for an evening of fun every Friday night. Dungannon Music Night held monthly offers country, bluegrass or gospel music at the Historic Dungannon

Carter Family Fold

A.P. Carter Highway

Hiltons, VA

276-386-6054

www.carterfamilyfold.org

Celebrate the traditional music created by the first family of country music – the Carter Family! Janette Carter, one of three children of A.P. and Sara Carter established the Carter Family Fold to honor the memory of her parents and Maybelle Carter who played a historic role in helping give birth to Country Music. The original Carter Family lived on this hallowed ground, right where the Carter Fold is today, in Poor Valley, at the foot of Clinch Mountain in southwest Virginia. Since 1974, the non-profit Carter Music Center has presented programs to promote old time and bluegrass music every weekend. Saturday concerts highlight the musical style made popular by the Carter Family and in keeping with the traditional music style, no electrical instruments are allowed (everything is acoustic). Carter Family Fold is an international tourist attraction on the Crooked Road historic music trail. Created as an event for the whole family to enjoy, visitors will spend an evening at Carter Fold with lots of dancing, traditional music and delicious homemade snacks! Complete your collection of Carter Family recordings at the well-stocked souvenir and record concession. Come early and browse through the Museum before the show.

Bush Mill

1154 Twin Springs Road
Nickelsville, VA
276-479-2965

A working grist mill near Nickelsville, Virginia. The mill is operated by the Nickelsville Ruritan during Bush Mill Days, the first Saturday in October, when grinding demonstrations are given and corn meal can be purchased.

Scott County was formed by an act of the general assembly on November 24, 1814 from parts of Washington, Lee, and Russell Counties and was named for General Winfield Scott.

Copper Creek Double Railroad Trestles

As you drive along Highway 23 between Gate City and Duffield, keep your eyes peeled to the east for a view of a double railroad trestle. A wayside has been created for visitor convenience with informative signs and picnic tables. Here at the confluence of Copper Creek and the Clinch River, two railroad lines of CC&O and V&SW converged as well. The taller trestle is 185 feet above the water and spans 1,160 feet of open air and was built in 1908. The smaller trestle was built in 1890. Both Norfolk Southern and CSX trains run over these tracks.

Historic Downtown Gate City

Take a stroll down historic downtown Gate City! Enjoy antiques along Jackson Street and grab a bite to eat at unique eateries such as The Family Bakery, The Blue Rooster Café and El Potrillo. As the gateway to the western frontier, you will be able to explore and find your own treasures in Gate City! The historic district of Gate City, the gateway to the western frontier in 1775, is listed on the National Register of Historic Places.

Historic Dungannon Depot

As a location on the Virginia Landmarks Register and a rare survivor of the passenger train era in Virginia's southwestern region, Dungannon Depot was constructed circa 1910 in Scott County on the Carolina, Clinchfield and Ohio Railway line. The Depot has been moved ¼ mile from its original site and is used for community events and meetings. Two interpretive panels have been placed outside the Depot for The Flanary Archaeological Site and the Coal Heritage Trail that runs through Dungannon.

Historic Scott County Courthouse

The earliest standing public building in the area is the Scott County Courthouse, built in 1829. Still home to the county's judicial system and offices, Scott County Courthouse is open to the public from 8:00 am until 5:00 pm Monday-Friday. Trace Your Roots during our Genealogy Weekend in June by searching genealogical records housed in the Courthouse.

Kilgore Fort House

Is the only fort still standing of the twelve structures that once extended from Castlewood to Cumberland Gap along the Wilderness Road. It was built in 1786 on Copper Creek by Robert Kilgore to protect his family against hostile Indians. The Kilgore Fort House was restored from 1973 to 1974 and is privately owned. Visitors are welcome to view the historic landmark from the road, two miles west of Nickelsville, on highway 71.

Wilderness Road Blockhouse

Daniel Boone blazed his trail west in 1775 through Scott County! The blockhouse serves as a physical two-story replica of the original Anderson blockhouse used as a stop for frontiersmen traveling west through three main gaps. Two of these gaps are in Scott County! See the Daniel Boone Wilderness Trail for more information!

Movement of Man

Birding

Scott County is home to two loops of the Virginia Birding and Wildlife's Mountain Trail. The loops, Appalachian Wonders and Daniel Boone, allow bird enthusiasts the opportunity to view 162 documented species located within our county. Visit our website for a complete checklist! Two state listed rare birds can be found by watchers with a keen eye: Magnolia Warblers and Loggerhead Shrike. We are a year round destination for viewing!

Magnolia Warbler

This is our story. We are home to the western expansion into America's frontier in 1775. The first family of country music came from our wonderful county. Native Americans and settlers used our rivers. Birds migrate and are visible throughout our locality. Coal and the railroad played an important role in developing our region economically.

Coal Heritage Trail

The Virginia Coal Heritage Trail officially begins at the Pocahontas Exhibition Mine in Pocahontas and travels 325 miles through seven Southwest Virginia counties. Dungannon is the first location to commemorate the significance of the Coal Heritage Trail by dedicating interpretive panels for educational purposes.

Loggerhead Shrike

Daniel Boone Wilderness Trail

On March 19, 1775, Daniel Boone blazed his trail West into Kentucky through Scott County. Over 300,000 traveled this trail to the early American frontier! The three Gaps used by Boone are in our region, two of which are in Scott County: Moccasin and Kane Gaps. Kane Gap is of specific importance because it is the only Gap that has not been developed by modern man. Check out the hiking and birding trail at Kane Gap. A driving tour of the Wilderness Trail is available for your adventure. Visit the Wilderness Road Blockhouse for living history reenactments and hands on demonstrations!

Fincastle Turnpike

In 1834, the Virginia General Assembly passed legislation to develop a route known as the "Fincastle Turnpike" from the Wilderness Road at Fincastle to Cumberland Gap. The idea was to promote commerce and bind the western counties with the rest of the state. Settlers used this route to reach the Daniel Boone Wilderness Trail as they traveled west across the mountains.

Wilderness Road Artisan Trail

Explore the talented local artisans of Scott County along the Wilderness Road Artisan Trail. From handcrafted dulcimers and mandolins to intricately woven fibers and watercolor paintings, visitors will be immersed in the culture of our region. Take home a priceless one of a kind piece of art for your home!

The Crooked Road

Virginia's Heritage Music Trail connects iconic traditional music venues along the 333 mile trail through Southwest Virginia. The major venue along the Crooked Road in Scott County is the international legendary destination of the first family of country music, The Carter Family, at the Carter Family Fold in Hiltons. Join the fun every Saturday night at 7:30pm and don't forget your dancing shoes!

Family Fun

Creation Kingdom Zoo

1642 Snowflake Road
Gate City, VA
276-690-5450

www.creationkingdomzoo.com

Truly a one of a kind zoo experience! Creation Kingdom is the only zoo or animal habitat facility in our region featuring big cats. They also have a large collection of primates, some of which are among the rarest on Earth. Plan a trip to the zoo and make a day of it. The atmosphere is relaxed and the people are friendly. This may be the only zoo you ever visit where you can get so close to the animals. You can do it all at Creation Kingdom Zoo.

Fannon Railroad Museum

Corner of Hwy 58 and Hwy 23
Duffield, VA
276-431-2428

Railroad Fans! Owner Kenny Fannon is a railroad expert and welcomes the opportunity to share the knowledge of each item within his collection. The depot was used in the movie "The Coal Miner's Daughter." Please call to schedule your visit!

Fresh Produce and Farmer's Markets

For the sweetest strawberries you've ever tasted, visit Mann Farms in Fort Blackmore. Or, pick your own! Enjoy the health benefits of locally grown produce by visiting our three farmer's markets located in Nickelsville and Gate City on Saturday mornings (8am-12noon) and in Duffield on Thursday evenings (4pm-7pm).

Natural Tunnel State Park

276-452-2442

www.scottcountyva.com/park/
Scott County Park & Golf Course offers a 9 hole golf course in a scenic mountain setting. Six picnic shelters, two tennis courts, tetherball and a walking trail are also provided. Meeting space available for rent with a full kitchen, gas fireplace and wi-fi access is provided.

Wilderness Road Blockhouse

Experience life on the 1775 frontier through reenactments and hands on demonstrations. The original Anderson Blockhouse was an important landmark. Noted as the starting point to the Wilderness Road, distances were calculated from the Blockhouse to stations en route to Philadelphia to the east and to Crab Orchard Kentucky in the west. Visit during Saturday and Sunday for educational programs!

Outdoor Recreation

Explore...Outdoor Recreation!

Summer sun on pure, untouched landscapes and shimmering warm colors of our fall foliage await your adventure!

Bark Camp Lake

Bark Camp Lake

Bark Camp Lake is a 61-acre lake located in Scott County and is the oldest Virginia Game and Inland Fisheries lake in Southwest Virginia. Clear water and good habitats for fish are prevalent for an ideal fishing experience. Walk the trail or relax with a good book at this pristine mountain lake location! Tip: Enjoy the breathtaking view from Osborne Ridge on your trip to Bark Camp Lake.

Big Moccasin Stables

276-479-3170

This stable in Nickelsville offers boarding services for horses while you're in the region and "breaking" a horse for riding. Along with boarding, enjoy a ride in their ring while taking in the peaceful rural landscape.

Biking

A designated bike path exists from Gate City to Fort Blackmore along Veteran's Memorial Highway that includes scenic mountain vistas along a challenging and beautiful route. Mountain biking is an option in the Jefferson National Forest and Natural Tunnel State Park along their trail systems.

Clinch River

One of the most bio-diverse ecosystems in the United States exists in the Clinch River! The Clinch is one of the top five cleanest rivers in the world and the top three in the United States. More mussel species exist in the Clinch River than any other river in the World! Burrowing in the sandy bottoms of our river, a grand total of 35 mussel species found in Scott County are rare and at least one can be found nowhere else in the world! Enjoy your expedition on this beautiful blueway with public access points created every 2-4 hours for visitor convenience.

Clinch Valley Outfitters

276-479-3316

<http://clinchvalleyoutfitters.com/>

Scott County has almost 100 miles of waterways! Enjoy these waters during a guided float or fishing excursion with Clinch Valley Outfitters! You can rent a kayak for the day, book one of the many float services offered or purchase your very own equipment after a demonstration on-site – something you can't do in a store!

Devil's Bathtub

Devil's Bathtub

Dive into the crystal clear water of Devil's Bathtub...if you dare! Hike the Devil's Fork Trail in order to reach this beautiful location.

Fishing, Canoeing, Kayaking

Anglers beware! You will be hooked on Scott County! The Clinch and Holston Rivers are full of smallmouth, spotted, rock, and largemouth bass, sauger, sunfish, musky, crappie, and freshwater drum. Here's an insider tip: trout fishing opportunities exist throughout the county on stocked trout streams such as Big Stoney Creek, Little Stoney Creek and Stock Creek. Canoeing and Kayaking can be peaceful and serene in our scenic, bio-diverse waters, but it can also be exhilarating!

Geocaching

This national hiding and seeking of treasure game is abundant throughout Scott County! Caches are hidden at historical sites, businesses, and other areas around our county. Track them down and make your mark on the county, noting down your visit in the logbook and trading an item of your choice for one of the souvenirs in the box. Once you have logged at least 15 caches placed by the Scott County Tourism Committee, email us your address and we'll mail you a limited edition pathtag.

Outdoor Recreation

High Knob (peak)

The highest point in Scott County offers stunning views, the beginning of the lengthy Chief Benge Scout Trail, and rare plants and animals.

Holston River

The North Fork of the Holston River flows through the southern part of Scott County. Public Access Points have been established for residents and visitors alike to enjoy the many fishing, kayaking and canoeing opportunities. Fisherman take note, you may hook a trophy smallmouth bass in the Holston River!

Hunting

Scott County is one of the best places in the state to bag that trophy buck or bear. Every year, Scott County hunters bring in enough turkey and deer to place us on the state's top ten list, and that doesn't include the numerous small game opportunities including raccoon, squirrel, rabbit, and grouse. Few places rival the immense beauty that a Scott County dawn or dusk can offer. Large portions of the 35,480 acre Jefferson National Forest are open to public hunting. With acres of public land to chase your quarry, Scott County hunting expeditions won't leave you disappointed. Contact the Tourism Office regarding locations to purchase a hunting license.

Hiking

From multi-day backpacking trips down the Chief Benge Scout Trail to half hour jaunts from car to vista we have it all! Check out the hiking trail map on the Scott County website! The Jefferson National Forest and Natural Tunnel State Park offer hiking trails as well.

Buck Hunting

Little Stoney Falls

If you've never been here, this is the "must see" outdoor recreation hotspot for you to visit during your trip! The 24' and 8' double waterfall is a beautiful natural attraction and is a photographer's dream! Mountain laurel and rhododendron are abundant along the 2.8 mile Little Stoney Creek Trail. Located at Hanging Rock Recreation Area, hikers and anglers will find tables and grills for their convenience.

Jefferson National Forest

Find almost every kind of recreation imaginable in the Jefferson National Forest! Hiking, mountain biking, cross country skiing, fishing and orienteering await you during your adventure. Don't forget your camera! With scenic vistas and natural wonders around every turn, you won't want to miss a single moment! Camping is available.

Powell Mountain Overlook

is located near Duffield toward Lee County and is the beginning of the Scott County Scenic Driving Trail. It is one of the most panoramic views in the county.

Trails, Trails and more Trails!

We understand that EVERYONE loves the great outdoors! Whether you enjoy a challenging outdoor recreation opportunity or just spending the day in nature, we have something for you! Scott County Tourism offers visitors tourism maps in niche markets including: Hiking and Walking trails, Little Stoney Falls map, Clinch River public access points, Holston River public access points, Equestrian, Motorcycle, Scenic Drives and Music Venues. # Culture

We're proud of our culture. Once you arrive, you'll realize how mesmerizing Southwest Virginia really is. We aren't commercialized with rows of hotels, traffic jams and everyone trying to "get away to the mountains" together all at one time. We offer an authentic Appalachian experience that is REAL. It's engaging. Visit one of our artisans below to experience the handmade character of Scott County.
