Carter Family Fold

3449 A.P. Carter Highway

Hiltons, VA 24258

276-594-0676

March-November

Saturday, 6-10 p.m.

Fold and museum open at 6 p.m.;
music starts at 7:30 p.m.

Website · Upcoming shows

The Carter Family Fold and Museum offers families a retreat to bluegrass music. The "Fold," as it is affectionately called, is operated to honor the famous Carter Family — A.P., Sara and Maybelle — pioneers in country music. Saturday concerts highlight the musical style made popular by the Carter Family, considered by many as country music's first family. There's lots of dancing and fun for the entire family.

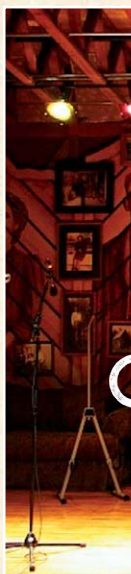

Shows are family-oriented; no alcohol is permitted. Handicap accessible. Admission: $10 for adults; $2 for children 6-11; children under 6 admitted free. Tickets sold online or at the door.

Charter member of The Crooked Road Music Heritage Trail.

Daniel Boone Wilderness Trail Interpretive Center

371 Technology Trail Lane
Duffield, VA 24244

276-940-2674

Website · Events page

Features a museum, conference room, library and gift shop. The museum focuses on the early westward migration along the Wilderness Trail from Sycamore Shoals to Cumberland Gap and the brave men, women and children who made the dangerous trek to carve the trail westward. Several hands-on exhibits are available, including how to strike flint and steel. Guests can also try on clothing from various time periods. Handicap accessible.

Dungannon Depot

18933 Veterans Memorial Highway
Dungannon, VA 24245

Web listing

From 1910 to 1912, the Depot in Dungannon was in a boxcar, open at both ends and located on a side track. The Dungannon Depot was one of the few remaining depots along the track of the Clinchfield Railroad line, which ran from Spartanburg, South Carolina, to Elkhorn, Kentucky. The last regular passenger train was May 2, 1955. The Depot was moved to its current location in June 1978 and completely renovated to serve as a local community center. The Depot is listed on the Virginia Landmarks Register as a Historic Landmark.
